FAMILY FOOD.

Crisp, Toothsome, and Requires No Cooking.

A little boy down in North Carolina asked his mother to write an account of how Grape Nuts had helped their family.

She says Grape Nuts was first brought to her attention where she visited.

"While I was there I used the food regularly. I gained weight and felt so well that when I returned home I began using Grape-Nuts in the family regularly."

"My little 18-months-old baby shortly after being weaned was very ill while teething. She was sick nine weeks and we tried everything. She became so emaciated that it was painful to handle her and we thought we were going to lose her. One day a happy thought urged me to try Grape-Nuts soaked in a little warm milk."

"Well, it worked like a charm and she began taking it regularly and improvement set in at once. She grew well and round and fat as fast as possible on Grape-Nuts."

"Sometime ago several of the family were stricken with La Grippe at the same time and during the worst stages they could not relish anything in the shape of food but Grape-Nuts and oranges, everything else was nauseating."

"We all appreciate what your famous food has done for our family."

"There's a Reason."

TRIALS

Of Twelve Persons Caught in a Raid on Annex Hotel Set for Tonight.

The twelve persons arrested in the police raid on the Annex hotel early Sunday morning are to be arraigned for trial before Mayor G. H. Gordon in police court at 8 o'clock this evening. Half of the defendants are women and the other half men. None is in the city jail, the four that were locked up Sunday morning having gained their freedom by posting the required bonds later in the day.

The twelve defendants gave their names to the police as Flossie Dotson, Shad Thompson, Jesse Taylor, Mary Anglin, John Doe, Mary Smith, John Robinson, J. W. Jackson, Mary Myers, Kate Jones, J. L. Hall, and Lena Sharp.

A pair of handcuffs, nippers and other paraphernalia in the outfit of an officer were found on the person of Jesse Taylor when he was searched at police headquarters. Police were mystified over the presence of these articles on his person, and the matter remained a mystery until about noon Sunday when a representative of the sheriff's office called at headquarters and took charge of the paraphernalia. It was then learned that Taylor was an officer, working under the direction of the prosecuting attorney's office.

At the evening service the Evangelist preached his great "Profit and Loss" sermon, and there were many decisions for the better life when the invitation was given, the greater number of whom were adults.

The offerings for the expenses of the tabernacle and general expenses are being quietly raised, the amount of this fund for yesterday alone exceeding $200.
